In vocal classes where candidates are 20 years and under, the keys may be transposed up or down one tone, provided the adjudicator is advised before the class begins. However, in classes where any standard editions are used, only the printed key may be used. Folk songs and Broadway songs may be performed in any key suitable to the candidate's vocal range.

Copyright Rules and the Law

All copyright music is protected under law and is the property of the composer or agent and of the publisher. Unauthorized photocopies are illegal and cannot be accepted or used during the festival. Copyright music may not be performed in any manner or variation without permission of holders of copyright. It is the responsibility of the student or teacher to apply to the publisher or composer for such permission. Performers must be able to produce proof of authorization if asked by the Adjudicator, or other festival officers. Failure to show proof when required may result in the immediate removal of the registrant from the class.

Program Guidelines

23. The participant's online registration will need to be completed and once finalized and paid, a receipt will be generated. This will confirm entrance into the St. Thomas Music Festival.
24. Each participant must supply his/her own accompanist, if required.
25. A participant may be disqualified if he/she is not ready to compete within 10 minutes of being called. A class will not be delayed to accommodate latecomers, but the adjudicator's secretary may change the order of performance in a class to accommodate those who have been competing at other locations.
26. A chord may be given on the piano at the beginning of each piece of unaccompanied music.
27. The Festival Committee reserves the right to appoint additional or substitute adjudicators.
28. After registration is closed, all entries posted will be available online by January 20th, 2026 on the St. Thomas Music Festival website and available to print. There will be a reminder email sent to advise it is available. It is the registrants responsibility to ensure you are aware of the date, session, class time, order of appearance and the location. If a competitor identifies a conflict, it is the responsibility of the participant or teacher to notify the Music Festival Committee to seek a solution.
29. Sessions will begin at the appointed times, but class times may adjust as required due to previous classes running longer than anticipated. In the event of changes or delays entrants will be notified if possible. It is expected that all personal schedules must be sufficiently flexible to accommodate late changes.
30. It is the responsibility of the festival team in each session to maintain order and to try to ensure that no person disrupts a performance. No admission to the auditorium will be permitted during a performance.
31. Each entrant will be called to perform at the discretion of the adjudicator.
32. Adjudicators are professionals in their respective fields and are expected to draw on their knowledge and experience to carry out their duties. No person is allowed to directly challenge any decision of any adjudicator. Any questions or challenges may be brought to the attention of the Festival Chair.
33. No person has the legal right to photograph or record any person without first obtaining written consent. Once permission is obtained, it must not cause disruption or distraction for the performer(s). It is the responsibility of the person photographing and recording to know and comply with all laws.
34. Each participant will receive the adjudicator's written report.
35. Awards will be presented in accordance with the Official Award List, subject to revision at the discretion of the Scholarship Committee.
36. Awards are presented to participants who, in the opinion of the adjudicators, not only perform well but also demonstrate the most potential for future musical development.
37. Award payments will be made by cheque directly to the Award winners and presented at the Keynotes Concert.
38. All Awards are presented at the absolute discretion of the Scholarship Committee following the recommendations of the adjudicators.
39. A participant will be eligible for only ONE Award per discipline.

Awards & Trophies

The criteria for awarding many scholarships have been set by the donors, and are subject to change, at the request of the donor. Undesignated scholarship funds, held in trust by the sponsor, may be divided or combined to create more awards of equal value, or awards of values greater than the smaller donations.

Music Festival 2026

40. Every entrant who completes the required performance in a class listed in the current syllabus will receive a certificate bearing a seal of the colour appropriate to the results assigned by the adjudicator. For a Non-Competitive class, the entrant will receive a participant certificate.
41. Selection of winners of cash awards, scholarships, plaques and trophies will be made following the close of Festival Week, and will be presented at the Keynotes Concert.
42. Winners are selected through the procedures established by the Festival Scholarships and Awards committee. Participants in the classes designated for eligibility in one of the six major competitions will be notified as quickly as possible that they have qualified for the competitions to be held on the closing night of the Festival or a time selected by the Music Festival Committee.
43. Scholarship cheques must be cashed within a reasonable time, and should not be allowed to lapse beyond the time allowed by banks.
44. A replacement cheque may be issued by the treasurer or sponsor upon application of the award winner or agent, but no replacement cheque can be issued after the start of the next festival.
45. Winner of one of the major competitions may not compete a second time for the same award but may compete in any class in any other discipline.
46. In the event of a participant qualifying for more than one scholarship, or of two or more participants qualifying for the same scholarship, the Scholarship committee will determine which scholarship(s) to award.

Competition Rules and Guidelines

47. The selection committee will distribute a program for the major competitions once participants are determined.

Complaints and Protests

All teachers, parents and students are forbidden from approaching any adjudicator at any time during or following the festival with the intent to debate an outcome or an award. Anyone violating this directive will be removed from the class and forbidden from attending any other classes for the duration of the festival. All complaints must be submitted in writing to "The Festival Committee" which will deal with the complaint. All decisions by The Festival Committee will be final and not open to further debate. It must be accepted that the appeal of the festival is found in the "spirit" of the event and not necessarily the detailed analysis of all outcomes. Award choices by adjudicators can be motivated by potential and a perceived need for encouragement and not necessarily on marks and placements alone. There must be a place for the subjective in the arts.

The Adjudicator must be provided with appropriate written music.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY:

All repertoire other than sight-singing or ensemble classes must be memorized. A performance wherein the repertoire is not memorized will receive an adjudication but will not receive a mark. With the exception of oratorio and operatic classes, where repertoire must come from standard editions, all other repertoire may engage transposition to suit the singer's vocal development.

We are pleased to offer Classical classes by level or by age, Contemporary, Popular, Own Composition, Mature Adult, Duet, Trio and Small Ensemble along with a Non-Competitive section for registrants that want only the feedback from a highly qualified adjudicator.

Please see OMFA's list of recommended selections for Songs from the Screens, with suggestions for Musical Theatre and Popular included.

Most classes are Provincial qualifying except for Non-Competitive classes. However, any questions should be directed to Hilary Greer, 519-520-4986.
